CVS Member organisation	The Island
Proposer	Paul Devlin Interim CEO, The Island
Seconder	Lee Probert Chair, York CVS

Personal statement

I am seeking re-election to the York CVS Board of Trustees following completion of my first 3-year term. Since my first election from member organisation Family Fund in 2022, I continue to be deeply committed to supporting the voluntary sector in York, especially through my work with youth charities and organisations.

Since January 2025, I have worked as a youth-focused freelancer, supporting charities and organisations across the UK with project management, capacity building, training, and facilitation. My background includes service management roles at both community and national levels, and I bring a strong understanding of youth work, safeguarding, strategic planning, and service innovation.

Within York, I now have the pleasure to work at The Island, another member organisation of York CVS. Working as a Mentor Supervisor, I currently manage a team of volunteer mentors who work directly with children and young people across the city.

I hold an MA in Applied Human Rights and a BSc in Psychology and Counselling, alongside recently completing a values-led training qualification with another York based organisation, Transform your Training.

I believe my blend of strategic insight, operational experience, and commitment to equity and inclusion makes me a valuable contributor to the Board. I am particularly interested in continuing to support York CVS's work around youth voice, poverty reduction and volunteering collaboration.

I confirm that I am willing to stand for re-election as a Trustee of York CVS
